Re: United States v. Donziger, No. 19-cr-561 (LAP), 11-civ-691 (LAK)

Dear Judge Preska:

Submitted herewith are four letters in support of Mr. Donziger. All of the authors have known and worked with Mr. Donziger for fifteen to thirty years. The authors include Suzana Sawyer, a Professor of Anthropology at UCLA, Davis; Jennifer R. Wynn, a criminologist and tenured professor at John Jay College; Nils Henning, the Director of the Graduate Program in Public Health at Mount Sinai; Rob Moodie, a Professor of Public Health at Melbourne School of Population and Global Health. These letters highlight Mr. Donziger's less well-known work (or at least, less publicized) dealing with public health issues in Iraq and Ecuador, and his re-entry work at Riker's Island. They depict a man of deep and life-long dedication to justice and volunteerism when out of the spotlight as well as within it.

Sincerely,

Ronald L. Kuby
